SUBJECT: LOCAL SKATERS SHINE IN OSWEGO

The Skating Club of New Hartford is extremely proud to announce that many of their members participated in the 10th Annual Oswego, Port City Invitational, held February 2nd, 3rd, and 4th in Oswego, NY. The competition was hosted by the Oswego Figure Skating Club. This competition is one of the major local competitions during the current competition season.

Skating club members that placed in the top three in their events included:

Shannon Creedon – Gold Medal in Intermediate Short Program, Gold Medal in Intermediate Long Program, and the resulting overall Gold Medal for the Intermediate division.

Dominica Toczala – Gold Medal in Preliminary Compulsory Moves (Group B), Silver Medal in Pre-Preliminary Freestyle (Group A).

Claire Hotvedt – Silver in Preliminary Freestyle (Group A), Silver Medal in Preliminary Showcase.

Jessica Smith – Silver Medal in -Preliminary Compulsory Moves (Group C), Silver Medal in Pre-Preliminary Freestyle (Group D).

Megan Crist – Silver Medal in Pre-Preliminary Compulsory Moves (Group A).

In addition to this, the synchronized skating team from the Utica Skating Club, which also includes members of the Skating Club of New Hartford, earned a Silver medal for their performance in the Open Juvenile division. New Hartford club members Madeline Palumbo and Amanda Tucciarone also competed at this event.

You can see these skaters locally, as they participate in Skating Club of New Hartford Basic Skills Competition and Exhibition, on March 31st, at the New Hartford Recreation Center. Admission will be free. People wishing more information on this event can contact Club President Dan Toczala at (315) 292-8645, or scnh@adelphia.net.
