SUBJECT: NEW HARTFORD SKATERS MAKE THEIR MARK AT THE EMPIRE STATE GAMES

The Skating Club of New Hartford is extremely proud to announce that three of their members participated in the 27th Empire State Winter Games, held this weekend in Lake Placid, NY. The Empire State Games are an annual event that showcases the best athletic talent in the state of New York. It is an amateur athletic event for New York State residents, conducted by the New York State Parks, with the support of The New York Lottery and The Olympic Regional Development Authority.

Skating club of New Hartford members that skated in these events included:

Shannon Creedon – 2nd place in Intermediate qualifying group “A”, which qualified her for the Intermediate finals. Shannon then took 4th place overall for the Intermediate division.

Amanda Tucciarone – 6th place in Intermediate qualifying group “C”.

Francine White – 7th place in Intermediate qualifying group “E”.

Competing at this level places these skaters among the elite in the state.

You can see these skaters locally, as they participate in Skating Club of New Hartford Basic Skills Competition and Exhibition, on March 31st, at the New Hartford Recreation Center. Admission will be free. People wishing more information on this event can contact Club President Dan Toczala at (315) 292-8645, or scnh@adelphia.net.
